The Rebel Commissioners.

The dispatches presented this morning, besides containing war intelligence of an interesting and cheering character, exhibits another of the political tricks of the rebels, who, while engaged in concocting a platform for the loyal Democrats of the North to stand upon and fight the Union party in the coming Presidential contest, divert themselves by telegraphing to Washington that they are duly authorized commissioners from Jeff Davis to sue for peace. A disposition, however, on the part of President Lincoln to accede to any righteous proposals in this manner exhibited, than these men are not authorized to accept Mr Lincoln's pledge for their personal safety while traveling to and from Washington in their capacity of envoys, but perhaps, if Mr Lincoln would authorize them to make it known to their master that the Government of the United States was prepared to sue for peace, they or others would be appointed to accept of his protection and hospitality, and listen to his proposals. In June, these same Democratic platform framers, now at Niagara were reported in the British papers as rebel secret agents on their way to Europe from Wilmington by way of Bermuda and Halifax. Commissioners and secret agents seldom perform the same functions, especially under governments constituted by and of the people, and hence it is probable that the whole thing is a trick of these noted villains and their brethren in the Northern States and Canada to learn upon what terms the President would be willing to compromise. Now that they have his proposition, we make no doubt they can squeeze the best kind of Democratic capital out of it, and soon the copperhead press of the North will shriek out against the Federal Administration in tones so shrill as to drown the bitter wailings of the loyal widows and orphans whose protectors they have slain in battle.

THE REPEAL OF ALL FUGITIVE SLAVE LAWS.—"Castine," the Washington correspondent of the Sacramento Union, says Congress made short work with this matter. On the 6th of June, Morris, of New York, introduced in the House the following short, concise and thoroughgoing bill

Be enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the third clause of an Act entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," passed July 17, 1862, and also that Act entitled "An Act respecting fugitives from justice and persons escaping from the service of their masters," passed February 12, 1793, and also that Act entitled "An Act to amend and supplement the Act entitled An Act respecting fugitives from justice and persons escaping from the service of their masters," passed February 12, 1793," passed September, 1850, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Of course the Opposition were up in arms forthwith and all sorts of expedients were resorted to in order to keep the bill from reference, it was, however ordered to be printed, and, after a postponement of but one week and a discussion of two days it was passed by the House of Representatives by the following vote:

In the Senate the bill was referred to the Special Committee on Emancipation and Freedmen and on the 17th it was reported back without amendment. From then until the end it was discussed by Saulsbury, Davis, Powell, Carlile, Johnson, Nesmith, Richardson, Wright, Willey, Sumner, Wilkinson, Howard, Hendricks, Trumbull, Foot, Grimes, Hale, Harlan, Harris, Howe, Doolittle, Lane of Indiana, Lane of Kansas, Morgan, Morrill, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Spragues, Summer, Tenbroeck, Tipton, Wade, Wilkinson—27.

Noes—Buckalew, Carlile, Cowan, Davis, Hendricks, Johnson, Nesmith, Powell, Richardson, Saulsbury, Van Winkle, Willey—12.

Not voting—Humphreys, Doolittle, Fessenden, Foster, Harding, Henderson, Nesmith, Richardson, Wright, Wilkinson—10

It will be noticed that Cowan, the Pennsylvania Union Copperhead and Rogers, John his cut-throat sister from Jersey and voted against the bill, that Dougall and Hendricks should also vote with the Copperheads in order to shield somebody, however, but we would have preferred seeing fewer straight-out Copperheads among the non-voting Senators.

It is a doubtful point which enemy ardent Union men of anti-slavery sentiments whether it was expedient to rejoice at the Fugitive Slave Law of '93 though a majority condemned the policy and injustice of repealing the infamous Act of 1850. The Proclamation of Freedom now will make this measure a dead letter, and will blot forever from our statute book an infamous slave catching enactment.

From the foregoing it will be observed that the voice of Oregon was not heard pro or con in the disposition of this important question.

Whether justice has thus been done to a conflicting people, we leave to be determined by themselves. The rest of the loyal States, however might feel an interest in knowing where we stand. Surely we do not differ from the responsibility of an opinion. How may we be regarded? As Union men or Copperheads?

Additional Eastern News.

NEW YORK, July 15.—This afternoon a lot of wood just arrived from Chile, and left in the upper end of the city to be taken in the ward usually. Fortunately the men drank at the foot of a main street. Brooklyn caught fire. The latter spreading rapidly, soon reached the warehouse which was filled with inflammable goods of various description. In such a time the building was completely covered, together with a large quantity of sugar, hides, wool, etc. In the warehouse adjoining 17,000 tons of guano owned by the Peruvian Government, valued at a quarter of a million dollars were stored. The total loss is estimated at $ 80 000. Two vessels also burned, the pier were destroyed.

The Commercial says Secretary Curry of Maine telegraphed to President Lincoln to send two gunboats to Castine and Lustport as the enemy had transported from New Brunswick on the frontier. The President at once complied with the request and telegraphed to this city to have the vessels dispatched immediately.

Gov. Curry has information that the suspicious steamer which sailed from St John on the 13th, put into the port of Cutler on Thursday night. Custom House officers found her and found she had a regular clearance for China. She was heavily laden and pierced for six guns. She sailed early next morning, and intends to run the Union blockade, take on her armament and enter on her career as a cruiser.

ST. JOHNS', N. B., July 16.—The report of a raid on the Maine frontier from New Brunswick is looked upon here as entirely without foundation.

DENVER CITY, July 18.—A large band of Indians attacked Lajou Ranch, eighty miles east, last night killed three men and ran off the stock. This done they stole all the Overland Stages stock, at the Junction one hundred miles east. During the day they visited several stations from the Junction eastward for fifty miles, running off the stock. Great apprehensions are felt for the safety of settlers and overland travel. More troops are needed.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Governors of Mississippi, Georgia, Alabama and North Carolina have issued a protest to the rebel Government against interference with the management of the import and export trade.

Two Representatives of Napoleon are with the armys as observers.

The Tribune's special dispatch says that more vessels are to be sent after the Florida.

LACKAWANNA, (Pa.) July 16.—A train with about 850 rebel prisoners on the way to the camp at Elmira (N. Y.) collided with the Pennsylvania Coal Company's train, between here and Shohola this afternoon. It reported that over 100 were killed or injured.

NEW YORK July 15.—The Tribune's special dispatch details the information received at Washington concerning the rebel raid from which it appears that Hallock on the 5th of July intercepted a letter from a rebel Colonel, saying that Ewell's corps, with Hampton's cavalry, making over 50 000 men, pursued North to Harper's Ferry, that Washington was left almost destitute of men and poorly defended by militia, and it was thought the rebel forces were ample to take the city. Washington was to be attacked on Sunday night but the attack was delayed until Monday, when Ewell received such information as to make him abandon the attempt, causing great dissatisfaction among officers and men.

NEW YORK, July 18.—A private letter from Morgantown (La.) dated June 30, says General Canby is very active perfecting his arrangements for military operations. Gen. Ullmann, with a large portion of his forces has arrived at Morganzia, where he commands all the colored troops. The fortifications of Morganzia are of the most formidable character and command a range of some six miles on the Mississippi. The position is deemed of the utmost importance, being a short distance from Port Hudson and Red river, thus forming a very important base. It is the key to the Red river country. The rebels have a large force on the banks of the Atchafalaya, nine miles in the rear of Morganza.

A Newbern (N. C.) correspondent says the entire rebel press of that State is much exercised by the discovery of a treasonable organization in their midst. A description of the passwords, formulas, ect., is published.

Indian Difficulties at Jordan Creek, Idaho.

JORDAN CREEK, IDAHO, July 14, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Last Friday news reached this place of the arrival of a large band of Indians, about 14 miles from here on the lower part of Jordan Creek, and that an Englishman, who was ranching stock near that place, had been killed by them and about 30 horses and mules, and 15 head of cattle driven off.

On Sunday, twenty-one men well equipped and led by Mr Jordan, left here to overtake and punish the Indians. After two days' travel in a south western course, at a distance of about 60 miles, the Indians were overtaken. They were supposed to number from 300 to 400, large and small, (for their families were with them.)

The party immediately attacked them where they were posted in a deep canyon, and after a brisk fight of about one hour, they were repulsed. During the engagement, Mr M Jordan was shot through the heart and died instantly, Geo. Barry was wounded in the hand, and O Eastman was slightly wounded in the thigh—then commenced the retreat, and the little band was closely pursued for fifty miles by about twenty five Indians. Seven of the Indians were supposed to have been killed and one horse captured. Mr Jordan's horse was recovered, but the party were so closely pursued that they were forced to leave Mr Jordan's body. The Indians are supposed to be Pi-utes. The party reached here on their return Tuesday. Since that time, the excitement here has been intense. About 160 men well mounted and equipped have been in the morning. Fifteen hundred dollars has been raised to-day to pay for the outfit, and twenty five soldiers are expected from Fort Boise to accompany the expedition. It is to be hoped the party will prove strong enough to do justice to the subject.

Mr Jordan was one of our most active and useful citizens. He was the leader of the party who discovered the mines, and after whom this creek was named. He had many friends and his loss will be deeply felt.

In haste &c.,

VANDALISM.—On Saturday last we visited the camp meeting held by the M. E. denomination on the North Santiam, about eight miles west of Jefferson and four miles north of Scio in Marion county, and while there we learned the particulars as far as known, of the burning of the stand seats etc., on the Thursday night previous. Permanents for holding the meeting were completed on Thursday. The stand for the ministers was built and a large space in front seated with plank for the accommodation of the congregation. On Friday morning the children attending the various district schools had appointed to meet on the ground accompanied by their teachers, anticipating with hearts so joyful with childhood joy the pleasures of meeting there, their verses and having a season of pleasant enjoyment before the congregation assembled. But alas! on arriving at the ground, instead of finding the shady grove seated and prepared for their accommodation they found them built in a dilapidated ruins. The materials in many instances could there before be found and with bewildering hilarity had blighted all their bright anticipations. A considerable amount of labor was necessary to carry the seats and pile them in the stand preparatory to applying the torch, and it seems probable that two or more persons were engaged in the villainous work. A committee has been known that the trustees of the camp ground had leased their ground to parties living near and others arriving from all directions and the ground was soon cleared and a new stand built, and on Saturday when we arrived on the ground a large night from had assembled and the Stars and Stripes were floating triumphantly in the grove remaining covers a volume of his guaranteed right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience.

The Albany Journal of the 22d from which we copy the above, says there is no doubt but the perpetrators of the above despicable act are truitors, and that their punishment must be sure before the country in that neighborhood will be safe. There is strong talk among many of the staid citizens of that locality of prompt dealings with the guilty parties, by which justice will be meted out and "the law's delay" avoided.

HOT WORK AT CHARLESTON!

Three Assaults on Sherman Repulsed.

CAPTURE OF ATLANTA!

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The latest information from Sherman is that the enemy were taken completely by surprise in crossing the Chattahoochie. Three cavalry were at once sent to operate on Roswell, for the purpose of destroying the cotton factories there, and to cut off communication between Atlanta and Augusta thus preventing the transportation of stores to the latter place and the removal of cotton to Johnson. Our main army is within 10 or 12 miles of Atlanta. All operations are progressing favorably. Gen. Bragg had arrived at Atlanta and reorganized it, was supposed, exercising personal supervision over the movements of the rebel army. It is believed that Sherman has by this time occupied Atlanta, as by an army to Macon to release the Union officers confined there.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Dispatches received here last night indicate that our forces control a portion of the goods, which recently ravaged Maryland, and that they recaptured a large amount of plunder. On Monday last, up to took a portion of the enemy at Sinclair's Gap where a sharp engagement took place. The rebels finally with desperation, but Crook succeeded in whipping them thoroughly, capturing over 300 wagons heavily laden with grain, stock and also took a number of prisoners. The enemy left the dead and wounded on the field.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 20.—Gen Fisk, commanding the district of Northern Missouri issued an appeal for 5,000 men, each with horses, and such arms and ammunition as they may have, to rally for protection of life, property and the extermination of bushwhackers generally in Northwestern Missouri. He says the emergency is so great that he can't wait until the details are made by the State authority, or that United States troops are transferred from other districts. That loyal citizens are being murdered, their property given to forces, houseless widows and orphans are fleeing to military posts, harvests are going to waste, and hundreds of Unionists are daily pleading at his headquarters for protection which he is unable to give in consequence of the hunted force under this command. Camps for rendezvous for this purpose have been established at St Joseph and Chillicothe.

NEW YORK, July 21.—A dispatch from Niagara Falls says an interview has taken place between Messrs Clay, Thompson and Holcomb, who claim to be commissioners from the rebel government to seek terms of peace with Mr Greeley who was authorized by Mr Lincoln to act in the matter. The commissioners propose the restoration of the Union upon this basis

1st. All negroes which have been actually freed by war to be secured in such freedom.

2d. All negroes who are at present held as slaves to remain so.

3d. The war debt of both sides to paid by the United States.

4th. State rights to be recognized in the reconstruction of the Union.

These propositions were laid before Mr. Lincoln by Mr Greeley. The President at once telegraphed to Mr Greeley the terms upon which he would propose an armistice and reconstruction to end.

A full and complete restoration of the Union in all its territorial integrity and the abandonment of slavery in all the seceded States, under conditions which should, while respecting the property and rights of all loyal men afford ample security against another war in the interest of slavery.

After considerable correspondence between the parties, it was concluded to refer the whole matter back to the two Governments for reconsideration.

The Herald's Niagara Falls dispatch says that Greeley accompanied by Mr Hay, private Secretary to Mr Lincoln, had an interview with George Sanders and others claiming to be commissioners from the rebel government, who wanted an interview with the authorities at Washington. After receiving the terms upon which such visit might be made they were accepted.

A dispatch says that the statement of the proposition published in the papers on Tuesday is rejected.

The Tribune Washington special says Gen. Hunter asked to be relieved only so as not to embarrass Gen. Wright in his pursuit of the rebels. There was no necessity for it, however, and the pursuit of the enemy is being carried on by Gens. Wright and Hunter with great vigor and with every prospect of large success. They are going south on parallel lines with the rebels flying before them. One detachment is rapidly sent on to fall into the hands of our troops.

A Washington special says Col. Jacques of the 10th Illinois Volunteers and Lieutenant Leonard, by permission of the President, recently visited Jeff Davis at Richmond, and had an interview with him on the state of the country. The dispatch says they were kindly treated, but of course nothing of the result of the interview has been divulged.

A Washington dispatch on the 21st says Deserters report that the rebels are ordered to move on and attack the line before Petersburg on Friday, but it was deferred. Deserters are constantly coming in, some forces singly and in couples, and have diverse stories.

The Tribune's Washington special says that only a few straggling rebels are on this side of the Chattahoochie. The rebel force under Hood is reported to be concentrating at Dalton with two corps, Hardee's and Stewart's, and Cheatham's division of Hardee's corps is reported to be moving on Rome. Hood's army is said to be in a demoralized condition.

A dispatch dated at the Chattahoochie 19th, says that a new movement has been made. Gen. Howard engaged in throwing shells into Petersburg.

NEW YORK, 21st.—Fulton, Hilton Head, 17th.—Several deserters who have arrived in Hilton Head, confirm the report that Hood is concentrating his forces at Dalton, the rebel force under him numbering 70,000, with the rebel General Polk in command. Sherman's left is said to be resting on Marietta. All the troops have returned from the recent expedition in force except a small Union force near Atlanta, which is fortifying and will remain there for the present.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Herald's personal says the Secretary of State determined to make a formal demand upon the Portuguese Government for the surrender of Semmes—thus requiring that Government to enforce the neutrality laws which it has so flagrantly violated, or else refuse to do so.

KANSAS CITY, July 22d.—A detachment of the 2d U. S. Infantry, under Capt. Moses, while scouring near Independence, Jackson county, came upon about 300 bushwhackers. The rebel advance were fired upon and correctly replied to the challenge. A skirmish ensued. Their whole force immediately massed upon our forces and a fight ensued. Our men were finally forced to retreat.

Rebel loss 16 killed and 21 wounded. Our loss 6 killed and 11 wounded.

MEMPHIS, July 21.—Col. Richardson with 2500 men pursued the guerrillas Dresslow, Knoxville—where they engaged in small skirmishes.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Republican says that the Government has received a dispatch from Sherman, this morning, announcing that the enemy assaulted the Union lines three times yesterday and were repulsed each time with little loss to us. Most of our men fought from behind their earthworks.

Dispatches from Averill stated near Winchester says Breckinridge divided his force at Berryville last night, sending Early to Winchester, taking another division toward Millwood. Averill attacked and defeated Early to-day, driving him out of Winchester, killing and wounding officers and men—capturing two guns and several hundred small arms—about 200 prisoners were taken. Gen Early was severely wounded. Rebel loss in officers is heavy. Union reported dead for 6 days have been 3000.

The Cincinnati special says disposition has been made to prevent the rebel marauders now on their way to Richmond, from reaching that city without capturing a large portion of their plunder.

Report of Stanton's resignation are more premature, but not particularly false.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says Jacques and Leonard visited Richmond and say that it is unanimously understood that the object was the restoration of peace. Col. Jacques proposed a year's armistice to go to Richmond and was refused permission to pass our lines. He got no further than Petersburg. He reports that our prisoners are now comfortably cared for.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 21st.—A correspondence between Holcomb and Greeley at Niagara Falls has been furnished for publication. The first letter from them to Greeley, asked for protection from the President or Secretary of War, in order that they may visit Washington. Greely replies under date of 18th as follows:

"I am informed that you are duly accredited from Richmond as agents of proposals purporting to be the result of informal conferences at Niagara Falls, and desire to visit Washington in fulfillment of your mission. If my information be substantially correct, I am authorized by the President to tell you that he will be pleased to see you at your earliest convenience.

"The safe conduct officially offered to you under the 10th inst. directs the agent to be able to refer to the President's letter giving such instruction which were furnished for the Executive Mansion July 18th 1864 which may concern, viz:

Any [illegible] and other property of the citizens of the whole Union and the abolition of slavery which can be dealt with by the authority to which your letter refers or other gentlemen clothed with full powers would immediately be sent to Washington with a view of hastening the consummation so much desired and a determination at the earliest possible moment of the calamities of war.

NEW-YORK July 22.—We have a well authenticated report that the rebels have evacuated Atlanta.

LOUISVILLE, July 22d.—Yesterday's Nashville Union says that Atlanta was taken on by our forces on the 18th, thus cutting off all communication with South Carolina except by way of Macon. Desertions come into our lines in great numbers since crossing the Chattahoochie.

California News.

YREKA July 25.—John Kelch, an old citizen of this place committed suicide last night, while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity, by cutting his throat with a razor.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—John McBrierty late Commissioner of Josephine county on Friday of last week came to his death in the following manner. He had driven his team into his barn with a load of hay and commenced to unload it, by some means his horses became frightened and started in order to stop them he slid from the load of hay and was caught between the hay-rack and a post and instantly killed. Mr McBrierty was an old and respected citizen of Josephine county. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his untimely death.—Oregon Sentinel, 23d.

(700) One hundred tons of OAT STRAW, to be delivered in the Quarter Master's Straw Sheds.

In the event of special dispatch being required, bidders will state the time within which they will deliver the articles.

The delivery will commence on or before the 20th day of November next.

Proposals to furnish portions of the above quantities will be received, viz:

Of Wood 100 or hundred weight,
Of Oats 25 000 pounds and upwards,
Of Hay 2 tons and upwards,
Of Straw 1 ton and upwards,
Of Oat meal 100 pounds and upwards.

Payment will be made in U. S. Legal Tender Notes, or in Drafts drawn on the Treasury Department payable in currency at gold value on the day of purchase.

Bids will state either in currency or gold value, and proposals received in a depreciated currency at gold value on the day of purchase will be rejected.

Bidders will be required to give bonds with sufficient sureties for the faithful performance of the contract, and bids with the names of the proposed sureties for the approval of the proposed contractor will be considered incomplete.

Contracts will be made with the most responsible bidder. The Quarter Master reserves to himself the right to reject any and all bids not deemed advantageous to the United States Government.

Proposals will be endorsed "Proposals for Forage," and addressed to the undersigned.

THE FESTIVAL THIS EVENING.—Let no one, who feels any interest in the welfare and comfort of the truly brave patriots now sick—perhaps dying on the battle-fields of Georgia and Virginia, forget the opportunity afforded to night, to aid somewhat in the bestowal of relief upon the sufferers. The Ladies' Sanitary Society invite all to come to the Baptist Church, where they will offer for sale at about 9 o'clock, the elegant and beautiful supply of fruits, flowers, cakes and confectionary, contributed by the liberal friends of the cause. A. B. Richardson, Esq., the popular and indefatigable Auctioneer, will conduct the financial negotiations, and will doubtless take care that no one will go away till all the money is transferred to the custody of the Society. The display of flags, floral and ornamental gifts, will be very beautiful, and well worth seeing; there will also be a finer and more lovely array of beauty, the sight of which will give joy, greater than we know how to describe. Come then, everybody.

Oh, think it not a charity thus to remember
The soldier, so ready to do and to dare—
The spirit of duty sent him to the battle;
Then let the same spirit send you to the Fair.

Then come every one, upon whom God has lavished
In goodness and mercy, enough and to spare;
As he has given you freely, oh, strive to be like Him
By giving the sick and the wounded a share.

Then come, and your gifts will cheer up the poor soldier,
The sorrows of some pining captive beguile
Oh, come to the Fair! noble women invite you
To aid in a work, to which God gives a smile."

ARRIVED.—The bark Industry, Corno, master, arrived at this port yesterday morning. She left San Francisco on the 30th of last month; experienced calms and light North winds during most of the passage. Crossed Columbia river bar on the 2d inst. She brings an assorted cargo. The following is her manifest:

Knapp, Burrell & Co., 220 pkgs.; J. McHenry, 1; Diamond "S," 160; Sevier & Co., 241; H. & S., 52; A. Cahn & Co., 793; W. S. B., Salem, 3; Hodge & Calef, 90. Block & Co., 134; Geo. Thatcher & Co., 2; C. W. & Co., Oregon City, 175; Joel Shepard, 32; Diamond "F," 3; French & Gillmore, 1; Geo. T. Myers, 49; Elfelt, West & Co., 335; Richards & McCraken, 301; Silver & Fain, 92; H. Law, 121; Hamilton, Wilson & Co., 54; S. B. & Co., 13; Levy, Block & Co., 85; Block, Miller & Co., Dalles, 365; Aaron Meir, 100; Diamond "B," 6; "H.," care R. M. & Co., 100; "S. O.," 2. Total, 6,117 00 packages.

TRY IT ON AGAIN.—Some low-bred ignoramus who has more mischief than brains in his head, has been trying to amuse himself by twisting the halliards of the city flag-staff in such a manner that it took considerable hard labor to straighten it out again. This is not the first attempt that has been made to deprive the city the privilege of hoisting the National Banner on the staff in question. Some six or eight months ago the halliards were cut and hauled to the ground, which cost the city quite a number of money and not a little trouble. The authorities cannot be blamed, from the fact that the dastardly villains perpetrate those acts of villainy in the dead hour of midnight. It is hinted by some that the former deeds must have been committed by some hater of the city in general. This must have been done by some thorough-bred Secessionist, who contemplated hanging himself. We will now give fair warning: you who see fit to loaf and lounge about that vicinity at an improper hour, may have to give a brief explanation of your business.

ADOPTION OF THE COURT HOUSE PLAN.—Yesterday the Board of County Commissioners held an informal meeting, on which occasion the Board adopted one of Mr. E. M. Burton's plans for the building of the new Court House. Specifications will soon be made out, when proposals for building said structure will be received by the Commissioners, and the work immediately commenced. We are sorry to say that the Common Council of this city have so far neglected to take action upon the report of their conference Committee, with the Co. Commissioners upon the subject of building an additional wing to County building for city purposes. We understand that the Committees agreed upon a basis which, no doubt, would have improved the appearance of the structure, and perhaps be a saving to the city finances in the way of rent.

SOMETHING WORTH KNOWING.—Prof. J. D. Andrews, of New York, the distinguished Mathematician who has met with such signal success in washing the citizens of San Francisco his new and rapid system of mercantile calculations, consisting of Interest, Percentage, and short Multiplication, is now in our city, for the purpose of imparting the same to our citizens. The Professor comes to us highly recommended by hundreds of the very first business men and best calculators of San Francisco, who were his students. Prof. A. is stopping at the Donnison House.

A WAR OF WORDS.—Last evening, upon the arrival of the Hunt, the Runner's for the different cheap boarding houses engaged themselves in the War-of Words—each one praising their own and depreciating their competitors houses. The language was not altogether of a choice character, and no doubt if it had not been for the presence of the City Marshal, a regular "mill" would have been the result.

A CHINESE CHANGE.—Some "Molican man" got into a muss with one of our Celestial citizens on First street, yesterday afternoon, in which the former was put to flight by a charge of the latter with an ax in his hands with which he was chopping wood. As a general thing, the Chinamen are of a peaceable disposition, and they should not be molested while they live among us—no matter what prejudices men may entertain against them.

QUARTZ CRUSHER.—Parties who arrived from San Francisco on the last steamer, brought with them a quartz crusher which they intend to locate in the Santiam mines. The owners left yesterday for that locality to select a place of location. It is reported that the Union and Santiam companies have purchased an interest in the mill.

THE PHONOGRAPHIC VISITOR.—We are indebted to Mr. W. H. Shaw, for a copy of the Standard Phonographic Visitor—a pamphlet devoted to the diffusion of short-hand writing. This work is edited and published by Andrew J. Graham, of New York.

NO CONNECTION.—There was no connection between the upper and lower Columbia river boats, in consequence of which, we have no later news from the mining region.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—Rev. Thos. H. Pearne, who is on his way home overland from California, was to address the citizens of Jacksonville in favor of Lincoln and Johnson, last Monday evening. Mr. P. is an eloquent speaker, and will no doubt give a good account of his stewardship.

APPOINTMENT.—Joseph W. Locey has been appointed by His Excellency Gov. Gibbs County Judge of Clackamas county vice S. Huelat, resigned.

Sanitary Festival.—The Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society will hold an ICE CREAM AND FLORAL FESTIVAL this evening at the Baptist Church. In addition to the good things to eat, music and several short speeches may be expected.

A number of beautiful cakes will be offered for sale; also, a nice lot of choice plants, which were donated to the Society by Mr Miller, of Milwaukie.

Mental Depression.—It has often been remarked that no one can minister to a mind diseased, but a mind diseased is frequently only the consequence of a disordered digestion, and naturally finds relief when the process of nutrition is restored to a healthful state. The PERUVIAN SYRUP removes the morbid condition of the stomach, quickens the circulation, increases the insensible perspiration, and consequently relieves the mind from the causes of its depression.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "ELIGHT COLD" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

RICHARDSON & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous; they give a healthy tone to the system, relieve all morbid matter, and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, new virtues have been found in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. jn26d1m

Periodical Headache—so common in malarious and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhœa are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause. For such, Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of these affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.

Imitations are abroad! Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.

A Soldier's Psalm of Women

The following was written by a soldier, with Grant's army, to ladies of Chicago, who were engaged in getting up a Ladies' Fair for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission:

Down all the shining line of days,
That grow and grow forever,
In truest love and tenderest praise
Of the Almighty's giver,
Whatever Goddess-like she takes
Have been and ever will be
The noblest name and first of these
Springs forth the soul of woman.

Her heart it is prepared as the flower
Of sacrificial purity,
Which, blown across the battle's lurid hour,
Transforms into a holy
Her hope is there, and all the solemn years
With vivific graces
And closes all fresh as the form
With light from higher places.

O, wives and sisters, theirs is not used
By lady's or critic's
Turning our wearied souls to
With bloodless alms or strains!
O, smiling in your dewy eyes
Tenderness infinite,
Untangling War and dark mysteries
And making sweet the bitter —

In dreary paths or dangerous posts,
By glen or cliff or furrow,
Shall be unto the soul unseen it sits
Acclaimed of sorrow
We hear the music of help on feet—
We feel yours free and gay
And all our life objects up to greet
Your lovin, news with bless ing!

On cots of pain, on beds of woe,
Where stricken souls languish,
Where faces white touch hearts grow
Tender but over anguish
While cradle time stays to lonely gloom,
Flush green with odorous praises
And all the lovely poor lets bloom
With Gratitude's white daisies

O, lips that from your love have sucked
The fever and the burning!
O tender fingers that have plucked
The coolness from our mourning!
O, hearts that beat so loyal true
For anything and for anyone—
God send our hopes safe back to you
Crowned with Immortal loving!

Thank God —O, Love! wherever we know
Beyond our life's seeing
And feel serene compassions flow
Around the ache of being,—
Lo clear o'er all the pain and dread
Of our most sore affliction,
The sacred wings of peace are spread
In brooding benediction

The Sanitary Commission.

GROUNDLESSNESS OF THE CHARGES PREFERRED AGAINST IT

Our readers are aware that from time to time there have been rumors of frauds discovered in the administration of the Sanitary Fund, in the most cases vague rumors merely, but narrowing down occasionally to specific allegations which assumed a color of plausibility, if not of truth. And this has been the favorite excuse with those who were too niggardly to subscribe to the Fund. "Very little of the money finds its way to the soldiers." All familiar with the economy of the Sanitary Commission are aware that by the system of checks and counter checks which is kept up it would be almost impossible for a fraud to be perpetrated without instant detection, but there are others who seem to imagine that the money contributed is kept in a great bag, into which all connected with the Commission are permitted to plunge their hands and help themselves at pleasure. The Rev C H Badger in a recent discourse from Dr Bellows' pulpit in San Francisco, gave some illustrations of the unreliability of public rumor and the readiness, if not eagerness, of the multitude to receive false impressions, so pertinent and striking that we make copious extracts therefrom. Some of these illustrations belong to the history of the Sanitary Commission and so have a peculiar interest to Californians at present.

Remarking upon the specific statements which in some cases are testified to by "reliable witnesses," Mr Badger said:

"In truth, there are no reliable witnesses. No testimony can be received till the cross examination has sifted it. The deceitfulness of evidence, the unreliability of testimony, passes belief. False information far more common than false statement. And upon this inference with observation, they testify not to what they saw, but to what they inferred. Their eyes were good, but their logic was bad. All who have seen anything of legal testimony know how nearly impossible it is to induce witnesses to state to what they saw—not to what they thought they saw.

"Our public affairs continually bring us instances of this error. What scandal we heard all the winter of 1863, concerning the chief statesman of our present National Administration, the Secretary of State! The air of the Midland and the East was full of the rumor that he was intemperate, that he was a sot, that, not to put too fine a point upon it, he was habitually, publicly drunk. In vain did you resist the rumor, in vain did you point to the admirable conduct of his department to his state papers so able so lucid, so calm coming from none but a clear and clear head. You were confronted with any amount of direct testimony from men who had been to Washington and seen with their own eyes

"[illegible] saw? They saw the Secretary while taking [illegible] at his public desk, drinking no doubt red fluid from a wine glass, which was repeatedly filled from a decanter by his side. Could anything be plainer? Should not men trust their eyes? Could one drink that amount and be sober? Could they be, say it out bravely or virtue? For how should they know that, for seven entire weeks, the Secretary had never sat to the Capitol in public and drank no [illegible] glass? A friend gave the Secretary a hint, a tea pot took the place of the decanter, and the rumor died away.

"This war gives birth to a monstrous amount of misrepresentation. It besieges the homes and distresses the charities of the land. That great charity of this war—the noblest of any age, the embodiment of Christianity, in whose labors the generous land of California has been honorably conspicuous—the Sanitary Commission, has not escaped the all assailing blight of calumny. Several times the streams of charity flowing into its ample coffers have been dammed, and its contributors made heart sick by stories of waste and fraud.

"Two stories seemed true they were well authenticated, the witnesses were honest and able, they were on the ground they testified, apparently, only to what their eyes had seen.

"One of these cruel rumors was that faithless agents of the Commission had fraudulently sold to the paper mill tons of lint and linen bandages which the useless hands of our Northern women had gathered. The tale seemed true. A mill in Massachusetts had the article. They were bought in Baltimore or as was alleged, of an agent of the Sanitary Commission. Dr Bellows followed the story up, found the man who made the sale, and found that he had no connection whatever with the Sanitary Commission. He found, moreover, that the transaction was in no respect a criminal one. A State Relief Association, having more of these things than were needed, had sold them to procure other things, for want of which the soldiers from their State were dying on their hands. Though that necessity was unfortunate, the transaction was not, but praiseworthy. Nor was it in any way the act of the Commission, though both the Commission and the soldiers had to suffer therefor. It gave an excuse for not giving and men are so prone to seize a pretext for shutting the purse. I have met many who had heard that rumor, but had never heard the truth.

"There was another case more striking still. A soldier appeared who had bought garments bearing the Sanitary Commission mark. It seemed that one thousand soldiers had done the same. There was no mistake here. Here were the soldiers wearing the garments; here was the Commission's mark on the garments themselves. Five thousand pairs of stockings, which the hands of generous affection had sent for the hospitals had been sold, by some body to well soldiers in active service. How faithless or inefficient the Commission must be to permit such fraud!

"The President of the Commission, with his usual tireless diligence, set at once to investigate, and lo it appeared that an excellent quartermaster, Col Ingalls, not being able to clothe his half clothed men, and being unwilling to see them suffer, had borrowed of the Sanitary Commission these five thousand pairs of stockings to repay them when the Government supplies came on. They were sold to the soldiers at all extra clothing is.

"Now the transaction was honorable and praiseworthy. The quartermaster and the Commission agent deserved a medal, not thanks. It was one of the many cases where the Commission has been able to prevent as well as cure. Even a thing resembling our armies. But how like it looked! Every one of those five thousand soldiers could swore to as I who would trust their eyes that wrong had been done. He had but to show the garments bearing the Commission's mark, and to allege that he was well soldier bought what should have been given to the convalescent or the sick. And out of that one transaction what honest disappointed could go to every corner of the land to discourage donation and shake the pitiful faith! What a lesson! How rumors gain by delay, and that every man who projects the [illegible] to remember a little story of it we may see the [illegible] and such cases of taking but how we hear."

As to the prevalent belief that the coffers of the Commission are bursting with fullness, Mr Badger said:

"Let that report never be circulated while there is a single soldier under arms! Let it be remembered that the Commission has never been able and never be able, to do all that needs to be done. And let it not be forgotten that the summer brings greater demands than ever before. Just now the expenses must be enormous. The great conflict in Virginia and North and South Richmond—a winter and the notorious summer in Louisiana—must demand with unparalleled satisfied. The great battle storming through May and reaching from Fredericksburg down to Richmond involves fearful expense. Besides the regular Sanitary Commission and corps which always accompanies the Army of the Potomac and is large enough for ordinary emergencies they have sent a special body of [illegible] nurses, and twenty five relief agents with [illegible] of wagons and forty horses [illegible] three steamers (to load one of which with vegetables for Butler's army, costs $15,000) are kept busy at an aggregate expense of not less than $500 per day. [illegible] such items as 5,000 soldiers' stage on the [illegible] lists from Chattanooga, $1,000 for condensed milk, $6,000 for cordials, $1,000 cash for New Orleans, $10,000 to Washington and $10,000 to the West, for current expenses in either region—such items, voted at a single session of the Executive Committee in May, and constituting but a small part of the monthly expenditure show the incredible magnitude of the work the Commission is carrying on. That treasury can never be full. Nor can that treasure be fraudulently drawn when every check must be voted by the Committee of New York's most trustworthy men."—Californian

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART, LIVER, KIDNEYS, DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal an liability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr Monry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth, U S Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 26.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms Consumption Cancer Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body in the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly searching and conservative. It regulates, revitalizes and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile are twice more closely allied and more than one half of the blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and blood fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish it by desirable co-operation in the system regulating the secretions and exercising a genial influence to the natural juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and bring the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution which has yet been tested or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes on all occasions.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

Debility from whatever cause arising may be cured, strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying respiration which recruits the strength and spirits without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females,

Thousands of ladies report it as a remedy for hysterics, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.
